Praises & Requests, December 2019

Praise for Answered Prayer

❑ Sharyn Holl, Ft. Hood, TX.

Praise God, our new head Chaplain will continue to support my Sunday morning women's Bible study and advertise it in the bulletin. Pray for new women to attend.

❑ Jennessa Randall, JBLM, WA.

We are so enjoying having our folks back from Korea. November was filled with good times of fellowship and new people being introduced to our house and Chapel community.

❑ Lou and Cathy Rozmiarek, Luke AFB, AZ.

We are grateful that the Chaplains are embracing us and the ministry and are sending people to the hospitality house. We have started to enjoy some one-on-one time with men and women. We are looking forward to this Christmas season. Please pray that as we enter this season, we will be able to truly go deeper with people and point them to Christ. Pray that God is glorified in what we do and say and how we share our lives with each person who walks through our doors.

❑ Paul and Stacy Cassidy, Headquarters, VA.

We have four new missionary couples who were appointed at our October candidacy for hospitality house ministry! Pray for each of these families as God provides their financial and prayer partners.

❑ Larry and Linda Ingalls, Ft. Riley, KS.

We are thankful for a recent growth in new Soldiers and couples who are getting involved with the Rivendell House. Please ask the Lord to knit us together in a close fellowship so we can support, encourage, and inspire one another in our walks with Christ.

Week of December 1

❑ Chris and Melissa Stephenson, MPD, Belgium.

We ask for prayer for our support raising trip stateside this month. We are hopeful to raise 20% or more during this trip.

❑ Lorene Glynn, Air Force Academy, CO

The evening of December 3 is when our chapel holds the Outdoor Christmas Tree Lighting. Families attend this annual event and have such a good time together—remembering Christ's birth and enjoying singing Christmas carols outdoors. Pray for all the Christmas celebrations at the Academy this month. Our Chaplains will hold a Christmas Eve service on December 24.

❑ Lou and Cathy Rozmiarek, Luke AFB, AZ.

On December 6, we will be decorating the hospitality house with the Airmen who come to The Well. Please pray that we will have some good connections and just have fun with one another.

Week of December 8

❑ Matt and Bethany Mowad, Foreign Armed Forces Ministry, Thailand.

December 9-13, we will host a week-long first responder event for the police department in Siem Reap, Cambodia. Pray for opportunities to build relationships and share the gospel.

❑ Brian and Cathy Hutchens, Fort Drum, NY.

Please pray for Brian and me as the long winter has begun. The cold, the snow, and deployments will mean lots of hurting hearts to gently point to Jesus. This has been a difficult year for us. One of our own children is struggling and we need your prayers for them and us. Pray that our sweet Savior would give us the mental energy to love well while we continue to hurt so deeply.

❑ Joe and Caitlin Fletcher, N.A.S Oceana, VA.

Please join us in prayer for The Anchor Hospitality House this holiday season. Pray that our home would be a comfort to the lonely, a witness to the lost, and a blessing to all who enter its doors.

Week of December 15

❑ David and Joyce Schroeder, Headquarters, CO.

We regularly hear stories of military people whose lives and families were eternally impacted by OCSC/Cadence ministries. Thank you for praying with us that this holiday season many will be drawn to Christ Himself and experience His love in a life-changing way.

❑ Dan and Becke Haas, Ft. Drum, NY.

December 15 we will be hosting youth and family in the chapel for a coffee and game night. This event is designed to get families out of their homes and equip them to minister to other families. Please pray for Chaplains and us as we minister to families during the winter and Christmas time. Typically, winter blues contribute to many issues.

❑ Jeremy and Kim Cover, Ft. Bragg, NC.

We are grateful for God moving and working in the hearts of people stationed here. We also appreciate the faithfulness of our Chaplains as they boldly share Truth. We pray God will create an urgency for those who don't know Him yet or those who need to recommit reading the Word—that they hunger, seek, and find what is missing in their lives.

Week of December 22

❑ Frank and Ruth Ann Branham, Ft. Carson, CO.

Most of our Soldiers are going home over the Christmas break, but a few are remaining. We look forward to being family for them. We praise God for the opportunity that the celebration of the birth of Christ gives us. Our son, Jonathan, will be here as well!

❑ Jennessa Randall, JBLM, WA.

Most of our single Soldiers are going home for Christmas. Please pray for safe travels and for their spiritual steadfastness in whatever being back home entails.

Week of December 29

❑ Sharyn Holl, Ft. Hood, TX.

Pray for my growth and insights as I finalize a new study I've written looking at the Gospels through the cultural lens of understanding Jesus as a Rabbi. Beginning in January, I will teach this at PWOC. Pray also for guidance on a topic choice as I've been asked to start an evening women's Bible study in my home.

❑ Paul and Stacy Cassidy, Headquarters, VA. A number of our missionaries who are in Partnership Development have goals to be on the field by the beginning of 2020. Please pray for their support to come in strong this last month of the year. Many are very close! Also, please pray that there will be much fruit from our Fall recruiting trips to various colleges and universities.
